

After reviewing the standards provided by the NJDOH, we believe that it is in the best interest of our community to not have our 2020 Summer Rec Camp.

With the strict standards, there would have been too many modifications and added responsibilities to our counselors (who are minors themselves).

